MAWSON ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF VP EXPLORATION

Vancouver, Canada – Mawson Resources Limited (“Mawson”) (TSX:MAW) (Frankfurt:MXR) (OTCPK:MWSNF) is pleased to announce that Dr Nick Cook has accepted the role of Vice President of Exploration. Dr Cook obtained his Bachelor of Science with Honours (Geology) from the University of Otago in 1985, then a PhD (Geology) from the University of New England in 1994. He has over 18 years of global experience in exploration and exploration-focused research geology. For the last two years he has been an exploration consultant to a variety of companies, while previously he concentrated on project generation and exploration of gold and base metal properties.

Mr. Terry Lees, who previously held the position of Vice President of Exploration, will move to the role of Principal Geologist for Mawson with particular focus of searching for new gold and copper properties in Sweden.

Mr. Hudson stated “We wish to welcome Dr Cook as the Company’s new Vice President of Exploration. Dr Cook will be based in Finland to oversee the Company’s exploration activities in the Nordic Region. He brings many of years of exploration and academic experience and will be a huge addition to an already experienced exploration team.”
